Reference manager software

These applications can help you:

- import citations from catalogues, databases and websites

- create and organize bibliographies for theses, books and articles

- insert and format citations within the text of documents

Do you need help?

The University Library System periodically organize training courses of Mendeley and Zotero. (Guides here: Mendeley, Zotero)

To verify available dates, you just have to check this link and choose your location: http://bibliotecadigitale.cab.unipd.it/en/training-courses

You can access to the courses in all the libraries of the University

If you're not sure which citation management software is best for you, check out our comparison chart (Italian version).
